Testimonials

"Thank you so much for the wonderful tour of San Antonio, the Missions and Market Square, with your knowledge of the area and your great people skills."

Betty Pullin, West Virginia

"Thank you for being a great guide and for all your kindness during our stay in San Antonio. It was a real pleasure having met you and your appreciation about America."

Ana Maria & Luis Goncales, Portugal

"We had a great time in San Antonio and we owe a lot of that to you. You treated us great, you took us to some really great places."

Pat & Jerry Stark, Santa Rosa, California

"If you are interested in a tour of the missions and the history of San Antonio, I highly recommend Viva San Antonio Tours. I've taken guided tours all around the world and was most impressed with this locally owned and operated service... with Avelan you get out at every stop and get a personal tour guide."

History at its Best

San Antonio City Tour

Begins at the Alamo:

The cradle of Texas Liberty, where 189 brave men fought for freedom from Mexican General Santa Ana in 1836.

Mission San José:

Experience the life in the Queen of the Missions, founded along the San Antonio River in 1720.

Mission Concepción:

The oldest, unrestored stone Catholic Church in the United States, where numerous frescos from the 1700's remain.

King William District:

An elite German neighborhood that dates back to the 1870's. See streets lined with beautiful Victorian mansions.

San Fernando Cathedral:

Completed in 1750, San Fernando is known as the oldest permanent active Cathedral sanctuary in the United States.

Market Square:

The largest Mexican market in the United States where history is tied to the color of the present. City Tour Call for Accurate prices
